

25/04/2014

Hanley Public Realm

The City Centre Public Realm project is a key City Council transformational project. SSE has worked partnership with the City Council to design and deliver architectural lighting to enhance and improve the city centre night time environment.

This has significantly improved the image of the city centre and has promoted the city centre's twilight and evening economy.

